Sunday 28th 41 The last sermon on 2 Tim 3.16. Flowing rain, but many students, after the walk with W. form the answer of Müller which mortified me so deeply that I could scarcely resolve to go there finally I did it. Awoke in greatest provocation, all things are now with our respective lectures on Dogm & Mor in so good a train & how he mars all. However I pardoned him before the Lord & supplicated the Lord grace upon him & renewed within me the assurance that all depends upon Him & that he can lead matters most differently from what we imagine. In the Romans I had been anticipating few there were 139, in the Synopsis many there came but 65. Confide on him treacherous heart! From the comm. on the Hebrews I anticipated honour & have been covered with shame, from the revised trans & Romans I anticipate shame & may earn honour.

Friday day Morning walk with Ranke & Riggs from Mersch, disputation on the personality of God, in Synopsis many not present who ought to be present, at 4 walk with Guers, he & myself at a loss what to lecture, in the 11th the note where he dinnomies Moral. Last night the Cobchmen with me. Now at 5 o'clock the evening before me, loathsome, dreary

Sunday 30 Jan 42. All the days before in Synopsis not many more but twenty & also in Moral they disappear fast and more them perhaps 100–110 will not be present. The more I was surprised & thankfull for the serenade on friday & the Treat combined with it, though from the consciousness how lamentable the state of things is actually I was not very gladly moved. There is scarcely an instance of my walk days with a new one. However Freisleben from Cöthen was introduced who seems a promising youth not so dull as the Cöthen people are.
