THE PRIVILEGE
 Of His Electoral Highness of Brandenbourg
 (now King of Prussia)
 Granted to the Hospital at Glaucha without HALL.

See Pag. 31.

§. 30.

WE FREDERICK III. By the Grace of God Marckgraff at Bran- denbourg, Arch-Chamberlain of the Sacred Roman Empire, and Elector, &c. Signifie by these presents, that whereas there hath been most humbly lay'd before us, the Scheme of the several Charity-Schools and Constitutions, for the well Educating and Relief of the Poor, at Glaucha without HALL, Erected by Mr. Franck Professor in Ordinary of Divinity and Philosophy at our University of Hall; and whereas we not only most graciously approve of so laudable and well contriv'd an Undertaking, (tending to the Glory of God, the Good of the Country

Country and the comfort of many poor People) but are also most graciously resolv'd to do our utmost for Seconding, Promoting, and Supporting the same. We therefore, in relation to this have thought fit, to Give and Grant, and do hereby Give and Grant, these following Priviledges and Immunities.

We Will and Appoint by virtue of these Presents, that whereas the Undertaking hath been begun by Mr. Franck as a Private Concern, the same for the future be managed under our Name, Protection and Authority, and be looked upon as a Publick Affair.

II. The whole Undertaking shall be regarded as annexed to our University at Hall, and Subject to its Jurisdiction; but the chief Management thereof left to the aforesaid Mr. Franck for the Term of his natural Life, and during his abode in our Country: And that it shall also so continue even then if ever we think to call him to another place.

III. And in case such things should happen, he shall be allow'd a Person to supply his Place under his Inspection.

IV. Whensoever Divine Providence shall be pleased to call him out of this Life, none shall be entrusted with the chief Management of the Work, but he, whom he himself in his Life time hath named, and in his Last Will order'd to succeed in his Place. Besides sides this, the carrying on of the whole Undertaking shall be committed to Men of true Integrity and good Conscience, of suitable Abilities and sound Understanding, and to none but such as he himself hath pitch'd up on who then are to make this their Business that the whole Undertaking as it was begun be carried on by the Principle of a blameless Conscience, which is to be the Duty of all that succeed in that Trust.

V.

Because the Hospital is for the most part both Situate and begun on such a piece of Ground as belongs to the Parish at Glaucha the Hospital shall therefore be referr'd to the said Parish.

VI.

Moreover the Orphans, and all such as die in the Hospital, shall be exempted in their Burials from paying for Ringing, Singing, Burying places and things of that Nature, since they are no otherwise to be esteemed than people of the utmost poverty.

VII.

Since we have most graciously exempted the Hospital from paying any Excise, 'tis further our pleasure, that by virtue of these presents it enjoy not only the same Benefit in Tolls and Customs, but

VIII.

'Tis our will, that the Houses, arable Grounds, Gardens, Meadows and other unmoveable Goods belonging to the said Poor be exempted like other Religious Foundations from all what the Lawyers call onera personalia, so that they shall by no means and in no respect be impos'd pos'd thereon. But as for the Onera realia to which some Goods bought up for the Hospital have hitherto been liable, 'tis our Will that the same be still continued; (except the Country thereabouts would for the Honour of God offer to defray the charge: ) But for these new Buildings and Establishments that never have been sub onere we Grant, that the same be and remain exempted, both from the Real and Personal Duties.

IX.

And because a great many Books are required for the use of the Hospital, and the rest of the Charity-Schools, and besides this no small Benefit may redound to an University, if it be well provided with Printing-Houses, Bookseller's and Bookbinder's-Shops, we Grant and Allow to the said Hospital the Priviledge of setting up a Printing-House a Bookseller's and Bookbinders-Shop, yet with this caution, that such Books as are to be Printed there be liable to the usual Censure.

X.

And whereas it has been consider'd that it would prove no small difficulty (especially in Winter, and in the Night time) if all such Medicines as are to be used in the Hospital should be fetch'd out of the City, and our Baylywick Giebechenstein wherein Glauch lyeth being not yet provided with an Apothecary's Shop, we Grant to the said Hospital the Priviledge of keeping an Apothecary's Shop, yet that the Drugs and Materials

terials be subject to Excise and other Customs.

XI.

Besides this we Grant that the said Hospital may keep the following Handycrafts-Men: A Taylor, a Shoemaker, a Smith, a Carpenter and a Cooper.

XII.

More especially we Grant to the said Hospital, the liberty of Baking and Brewing, viz. so much as may be spent in the Hospital and other Foundations belonging thereto.

XIII.

We Grant to the said Hospital the Priviledge, Salvo jure retractus, the first Refusal of any Goods exposed to Sale, especially in our Balywick of Giebiechenstein whensoever it happens that any parcel of Land whether Meadows, or Gardens is to be Sold, provided that as good and reasonable a rate be allow'd by the Hospital as is offer'd by others.

XIV.

For the better Maintenance of the Hospital, we Order that every Church in our Dutchy of Magdebourgh and Principality of Halberstad (except such as are Poor and in Decay themselves) furnish the said Hospital with one Crown a Year, and that the Superintendents and Inspectors make this Collection in their several Parishes, and send it to the appointed place.

XV.

We have likewise graciously Granted, that a free Collection be made throughout all our-our Provinces and Dominions for the Maintenance of the Hospital, and the Person appointed to go from door to door, shall be accomodated with our gracious Recommendation on that behalf.

XVI.

We allow also by virtue of these Presents the tenth part of all such Fines as fall in the Dutchy of Magdebourgh, and Principality of Halberstad, not exceeding the Sum of Fifty Crowns each. And We Will that these be reserv'd for that purpose by the Officers of our Treasury, to be made over as a settled Fund for the use and benefit of the said Hospital. We likewise Will and Command, that

XVII.

Such Orphans out of the Hospital as are to be put out Apprentices, be Bound without exhibiting any Testimonials of their legitimacy; especially in case they be born in remote Countries, so that the procuring of such Testimonials would either prove altogether impossible, or at least too chargeable. Wherefore instead thereof a Certificate given by the Director of the Hospital shall be sufficient.

XVIII.

They shall likewise be freely receiv'd into the Corporations belonging to their several Trades, and be entirely exempted from all such charges as usually are to be pay'd when they are to be bound Apprentices or made Free.

XIX.

XIX.

Whensoever it happens that some Stipends are to be conferr'd in the aforefaid Dutchy and Principality, We will caufe fuch as are bred Scholars in the Hofpital, to be preferr'd before others, cæteris paribus.

XX.

As for the Building of the Hofpital it felf, We grant fome Timber, Lime, Bricks and Tiles, and upon a further Information of what is wanting, a more particular Order fhall be given.

XXI.

Of all fuch Incomes as are bequeath'd to the Children by their deceafed Friends, the Hofpital fhall receive the Revenues, whilft the Children are in the Hofpital. But when they leave the Hofpital they may then take it along with them, or if they be not arriv'd yet to a capacity of managing it well, the Revenues fhall be faithfully preferv'd for them in the Hofpital till fuch time.

XXII.

Whensoever fuch Orphans as have been bred in the Hofpital, die without Ifue, the Hofpital fhall Inherit the third part of what they poffefs.

XXIII.

And as it is our Will and Pleafure, that thefe Points that have been deliver'd here be kept moft ftrictly and without default, fo our Officers and Minifters both at Magdebourg and Halberftad are charged by virtue of thefe Presents, to demean themfelves accordingly, and with fuch compliance as becomes them, for the execution of our

Com-

Commands herein expressed. In confirmation whereof we have subscribed these presents with our Hand, and annexed our Electoral Seal. Given at Cologne on the Spree, September the Nineteenth, in the One Thousand Six Hundred and Ninety eighth Year, from the Nativity of our Lord and Saviour.

FRÉDÉRICK.
