IV.

An Extent of the said Exemption.

FREDERICK III. ELECTOR, &amp;c.

THE inclosed Paper here will at large inform you about the desire of August Herman Franck, Our Professor at the University of Hall, who hath most humbly petitioned US, that the Exemption from all manner of Excise bestow'd on the Hospital erected by him, dated the second of October, in the Year last past, might be granted to the Hospital as it is granted to other Pious Foundations, viz. without any Restriction; and that he may be allow'd withal, to take what Drink he wants for the use of the said Hospital, from a certain Frenchman there called le Veaux. Whereupon these are to Order you, to allow the aforesaid Exemption to the Petitioner in such Terms as he hath desired it, unless there be something of important and dangerous consequence to hinder it; and that you acquaint us withal what has been done in this Affair, sending to us an Account of such a Method of managing the same, as may best answer our Trust reposed in you, for the prevention of all ill consequences. Cologne upon Spree February the 3d. in the Year 1698.

To Our Counsellor and Commissary of the Taxes, Tenzel.
