March 4th. Preached in the same Church & Language on the Duty of receiving the Sacrament in Remembrance of Christ's Death & the Benefits thereof; & administered the Lord's Supper to my family, & the Germans that live in this place, as also to some portuguese People, who are come here from Tranquebar, fuddalore, & Madras, & belong properly to the mission.

March 20th. Next Sunday being Easterday & the Sacrament to be administered in the Dutch Church, I preached in Portuguese on the Institution & use of the Sacrament. As most of the Dutch people born & bred in India, most of the Ladies & many of the Gentlemen included, do understand much better the portuguez, than the Dutch, Language, I observed, that my Discourse had given much Satisfaction, as it had been better understood, than any Discourse on the Subject they had heard before in another Language.

March 21st. Set out for Tranquebar to assist the Missionaries in their Labours during this Week & the next, & in particular to supply the place of Brother Konig who is now at feylon. I dined at karikal with the Chief Mons. De Boistell, who was Chief of fuddalore during the time of the french, & recommended to him my Letter which I wrote to the Governor of Pondicherry on account of the Mission House & Garden at fuddalore which the french destroyed in the Year 1782. on the approach of the English army, & for which by the Capitulation they are bound to make some Equivalent.

Thursday March 24th Preached at the Danish Church in German on the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.
