29 Apr. 1837. Ant. Ab. Returned from a walk with Karenbalg & Kahnis.
 We are just at the commencement of the summer, I began the 27th. This is the time of anxiety about the numbers. When I entered N.W. last Thursday, about 40 were present & about 14 had their names taken down, this circumstance bid fair for about 100, last sem. the proportion was about the same, in the Synagogue I expected rationally about 60 or 70. Several other things had happened to raise my expectations, from many quarters I received notice about my book being well received, from Gua today, from Kolshin thro' Petersen, from Bauer in Prin, from old Bunde, from Schule, from Ullman, Ambricht. Mathias came with the commission from the ministers. I had dined with the pro. of Ich., received attention from Wille, Madai etc I have been in Prin two weeks ago. My conversation with the prince was excellent with respect to his principles, but it appeared to me that he had ausgesprochen himself towards me so that nothing remained for a second consultation.
Schule conversed most friendly & confidentially about my translocation to Prin, kissed me in parting, but he is a filon. In general my relations to many people has received a more friendly aspect. Such people like Twestky, Kolshin, Nicol, Draesem who in the year 1830 would have shunned me, seem to consider me as one of their own party.
