entirely inclined to the South, though they had never had intercourse with me. My apprehension now, after M. is done away with, is Niem's appointment.
But evidently Edm. is rousing the spirits

Dec. 23rd Saturday Eve dock 37. In how before returning out to Berlin, rain pouring down from heaven. What has excited me lately was the notice from Rösch that the minister thinks of appointing Kasse. I am gladdened several days by it. Health in general good, sleep well, the eye not so much affected since I discontinued washing with cold water, but extremely weak so that walking in moderate wind hurts it considerably with the fog! which he said to attack me & by the small very small number of enquirers, it has never been smaller indeed, & some of them like Hüser etc. only reaching in the way of photography.
Baumgarten ^{Budach, Almon} has arrived but dreary fellow.
Toppels is dear to my mind, he satisfies my desire completely.

2 Jan. 38. Returned from Berlin with sad account from the minister, which grieved me, for as to Lücke I cannot entertain any hope. My eyesight very weak so that using the left eye occasions instantly pains. Read in the chronicle observes of the splitting of the christians without end. Cannot read & for doing any thing else I have no opportunity & ability Informed of poor Wagner's death. Strongest desire to give up my place as Prof. for being obliged to work & not being able pains me. However lest The ungrateful I cannot but repeat what God has given me.

He afforded me much pleasure again in Berlin.
Even walking on the large streets & passing the gaudy uniforms & splendid shops is a recreation for one who is so apt to be absorbed in himself.
Last evening at Louise felt uncomfortable because the room seemed very cold & f. formal. Went to H. on foot though very wet & was retained with him a while. Next morning to Kottw. & from him to Strauss, then to Hengst. to dinner, where also the Gehrmers' relation of Prince August's journey to the Sultan, who appeared after dinner with the children. Some sleep, then to Görschel most kind but unclear about Strauss, evening again with company at H's with General Quandt & Bohr. Next morning ten to Jungken ~~without~~, made me glad but - do see any thing? - Saturday noon dined at Lanow's with Antony, Heffrich, Lane, Gulachs, Lefft, Erhman, Anders. Oh how sweet & interesting. Major Get. spoke of Goerres Mystik, speaking of all omniscient in some way of course.
