I read Dogn & Galates. No one has announced his name as yet. I shall begin without having a single name on my list. He wrote today the likes to the Minists. It is a fortunate circumstance that his confidence prompts me to tell him about my salary & about Kremers.
The latter one haunts me properly speaking.

Oh how unworthy of a Christian, I feel I cannot bear contempt. Yet in conscience one must be above it, that I can also & will do it.

14 May 38. Have begun today Dognetin, had ^{two} ~~one~~ only on my list, there were ~~perhaps~~ about 20 but some not writing. It is now the hour from 11-5 but one only whom I do not know has announced his name, the few others are well known german. At 20 low an ebb I have never come down, as to the exegetical evenings, which had totally ceased last winter, no one troubles himself about. Someone came this moment to ask for a Hebrew Bible, that reminded me of the time when many many came to call for German Bibles & Testaments. Oh what a sad change.

12 June 38 As to the numbers there remains a sad decrease, there are now 37 for Dogn on the list, in Galatians 42, in 1 Cor 65 though as it appears it has not many more, psalm 61 in Synopsi, 22 in Moral, only 30 has 143 in Archiv. I was most deeply grieved at it in the beginning, the more so as ^{Lüthy} Richter letter informed me that the min. had been ready to call him but that he had declined. In the mean time the plan for building the house was on the point of being executed. I should have seized that opportunity most gladly, had not the apprehension of being left here alone damped my spirits. It was a bright day when we stood in Antons garden making plans & I was heartily ready. For the rest I spent about 3 weeks ~~heartily~~ in very good spirits, a great internal tranquillity, peace with God & mankind, full faith, last weeks there was a want of quietude, but this summer I cannot sufficiently disturb them, walked lately with the 3 Hanoverians, today with Melzius from Bornum, in the evening with Weissenborn from Mexlenb., & for intercourse there is also a great number Weise from Eisleben, Albrecht fr Weissenf., Bolz from Mersb., Paulz from Potm. etc. Yesterday with Schwarz from Grossw. with whose conversations I am truly delighted. Oh how delightful it would be to have him at my side, but providence seems to leave me without any support. I humiliate myself & hope. — A great privilege it will appear to me if Smith travels with me & look forward to this journey with greatest delight, though I fear M's absence will mar the pleasure. — Mond I walk usually with dear Welter, Berge & Samb.

Friday 15 June 38. At dawn with Schwarz Kessler Ulr. God is more persecuted but I had correctly exposed H.'s doctrine concerning God.
God is only an 2d Person, & becomes only unwürdig Person at the end.
The ruhige Ause which L. denies was called by Kessler a stump offenbar stump which requires it a moder party. — It is pretended that Logic is the power of God himself by which his creation was effected, but it does not proceed from pure intellectual basis. Nichts is nichts edwas, is taken from Erfahren That Sein is Sein we know only by turning our mind upon Erfahren
