Merry. In the evening at supper Ngemann & Koschnick.

Tuesday 19 June 38 I walked with Kaise who is a very nice intelligent youth of good breeding & with the Lamprecht & Wächter. In the evening quite a circle as of old, the presence of such old ~~old~~ champions as Kredschl, Häsel, Bröhmer, Kirchner enlivened the conversation, also some new ones as Saathwächter, Holtmeyer etc., about 26

Wednesday 20 June 38 After dinner received Stn & read quietly on in good humour till I met this injustice, it made me sick in the stomach & - now Schmideler letter about Paul arrived. I was able to gather courage & strength, but still it produced a bad night. However I was able in the evening reviv, at which Weise & Kord were present, to pronounce firm faith. I learn more & more to consider all as transient, having lived already long enough to see that -

Friday
Thursday 21 June 38 Well now, that's remarkable! At 5 o'clock Ge. asks me: Do you know the allerneweski? Is Kg hat & Vocat. under searchnet. Is hais ja & Kg Hamireu etc. Well now, what is that? I am aware that something good never happened without preceding crossings, but on the other hand also an evil never came alone, though I cannot consider Paul's behaviour as a first rank evil at least as yet. I have instantly written to Nicol. This day next year I shall here notice what that was, which as yet wrapped up in doubt may as well turn out as a great disaster as a great benefit, though I had been indulging the prospect of a vocation of Müller. - At dinner walked with Vockmar & Melzer of Brunswick. At 4 o'clock I had been talking with Dr. Bräune from Cöthen. Last night I walked with Holtmeyer from Lezlenburg & took supper with Hilfshand & Bräune from Halberst & Pöthme & good old Schwarze.

So I am well & apprehensive as to the future because Lücke will not come. The second sign seen also Feb. 18. from here: now it was much less than it was at the time of the first sign.
Saturday 22 June 28 The more I think about it, the more unlikely it appears to me that the call should have taken place without a sort of consent from Lücke. Nic. has received his letter instantly, so that the case of his having been absent is improbable. Not less improbable it is that he should not have informed the minister, & finally improbable it is that things should have had advanced so far as to render the withdrawing of the call from the hands of the king impracticable.
So I yield more to hope than to fear.

Wednesday 26 June 28 Morning. Last evening again falling off of some the number smaller & the only speaking members Kirchner, Krieger, Anser, Schwen & a little Schabwiler, afterwards down on the lawn with Hiss. Had received Nicol. letter that contained nothing, but showing also that I need not be alarmed at evil consequences.
It is a pity to see Ruge rage in such a manner, it might seem as if the zeal for picky of the period from 1817-1830 was something transient & the development of the principle of Semler etc must continue

Tuesday 2 10 July 36. Sunday I preached at Mark 14., fullest church, Wick, Hicke, Thone afternoon walk with Göschel, evening with Thone & two Hansenboys, Monday morning with Ulmer, Amstutz, Elias, even. with Thone, Peller, supper Schuder from Stadel & Dyckhardt fr. Zee. I must confess that the whole course & winter much greater disposition to joy, quietness of mind than in former days, perhaps owing to better sleep & digestion. I had many very sweet hours, though the letter from Rheinthal about Paul damped my spirits & gave me a restless night, yet the next day I was quite in good spirits. I am cherished by the prospect of the journey to Lücke or somebody like him.
Wednesd. morn. with Moraw King Appert, evening with Beck Kleeuwit from Lindeln. & Wesselsborn from Munkeln., Thursd. with 11 with Volkmeier & Melzer from Dornsevic & Schulz & Schreiber, evening with Bröller, Prange from Weisenz. Holzb. fr. Halberst., for supper Böhm from Buchst. & Herr K. from Wittenb. (Squintins), took leave, satisfied as having prevailed upon Herr K. to him into the net. That I must say there were scarcely at any time so many new ones attracted as this remoter, which is a good heaven. I am anxiously waiting for the letter from Kierp, dreading the travelling and
