is the air & the green of spring but it appears to me that never before in my life spring made such an impression upon me as this year and to heighten my bliss, from Dublin my appointment as preacher has arrived & my Erlangsbuch contribute, also a great deal to it, it refreshes me as often as I write of it. Saturday 5 o'clock we went off, sad night, over a 2 June, 29 Pont May 6 U. This a new life: so peaceable, so calm I have never been in so earlier period. I enjoy the spring as I can truly say I have never never enjoyed it. I come daily home with a thankful heart, with an overflowing heart. I don't know if it is merely in consequence of this inward peace, but it appears also to me that my professional duties were never easier to me All glides away so smoothly. I enjoy a tolerable sleep, sometimes very deep, can perform the preparation for Synods very well, come home at 9 to take chocolate & to prepare for dogm. & at 11 I have generally finished & so much time for myself, with the except of mood & Tuesday 6 o'clock where I read Einleitung. Much contribute the great number of beautiful youths, the large number of hearers also in Dogn.
