Called up upon the deck we were at the shore, the sun brilliant, the magnificent castle in the face of the Catharine church in Södermalmen at the one side.
A note was handed to me by the shoemaker & constrained me to set up friendly faces, we passed a dark street reminding me of Rome & the well furnished rooms of Mr R were before me, though full of apprehension because of the low situation in the first floor & the yards next to the night chamber. I hastened to take a view of the city & a walk in the Sömpark. Being returned the first impression of R was that of a flat formal man. We took our meal at home & after some visit to the Gärdsgränd, there happily met Mordechai which was a relief, then the Telians also, the view from some higher hill, sea with R. & Next morning first with R & M to F. where I first met Grimm. Then the picture gallery with some Lammara & Dutche & over all the, then Endymion a huge Odin from Vagdsang, only about 80 pieces, desired to take a run, at 2 to the Club, introduced to a with whom the bishop of Skara & that of Götah. He and I in a small apartment with a secretary, calling the bishops thru, as we hit upon England, he was interested Reuterahl who dined with us, ^{on the way} to Carlsberg, the view from the rocks of Maria Fred, beautiful bays, at a larger distance the city in a most delightfull amiable, some boats upon the quiet surface, round home in the pleasant depression. Tuesday a view from the telegraph, Riddarholmen xxx
