March 15: th 1) M^r. Schultz having procured us again 100. Pag: which we received by bill of exchange, we have brought this to an account and adjusted some particulars concerning the same.

2) About our Sermons till Easter

3) To make our Preaching easier, chiefly in the hot season of the Year, we will for the future divide the Prayer and Sermon betwixt us, so that one reads the Prayers and the other Preaches.

4) About our joynt exercises in the malabarian language.

22: 1) About our Sermons and Teaching in general.

2) We intend shortly to celebrate the Lords Supper in the malabarian Congregation.

3) How to bring one or other of the natives into a closer acquaintance in order to make him a Proselyte.

4) To buy a small store of grain for our Oeconomy.

th 29: 1) About the same as in the last.

2) Some high German Soldiers in the company's Service have desired us to administer the Sacrament to them, we intend to comply with their desire shortly, and to prepare them in a short Sermon or two.

3) About the celebrating the Lords Supper in the Portugeez congregation again.

4) To repeat the Catechism again in the Portugeez School.

5) One of us will take care to exercise once in a week the Portugeez boys in the English language, that they may advance so much the better.

April 5: th 1) About the administration of the Lords Supper.

2) A native having discovered to our catechist a desire for Christian religion, we will do our best to be serviceable to him.

3) We are under a great concern about our Silver and other things, as we hear nothing yet about it, we will write once more to Madras on that account.
