circumstances, which we will further consider off and come to a resolution in the next Conference.

Sept. 24.

1.) We regulated the lessons for every day and hour of the Week, in the Malabarian School.

2.) Regulated and Settled the business of the Cathedral and Schoolmasters.

Octob. 1.

We deliberated and resolved, not to pay the alms to the poor at once in the month as hitherto, but to divide them at 4 different times in the month. We also considered who should receive alms, and how much may be allowed to every one, according to their different circumstances.

Octob. 8.

1.) Some heathens having desired to be instructed for Baptism, we called them and inquired into their circumstances and for their motives. And as they must learn the whole day, we agreed how much to allow them daily, for the time they must come here and be instructed as they cannot have time to work so long, & consequently would suffer want if they were not assisted.

2.) Agreed to procure a house for the Malabarian

rian

rian Schoolmaster Lewadinam in Wandapaleian that he may live there & to be ready in the morning early to have Prayers with all the Christians there before they go out to their work, and afterwards to instruct the Children there in the forenoon. and in the afternoon to go to Tripaplar and instruct those children there and to have prayers in the Evening with the Christians there when they all come home from their work.

- 3.) As we have Several Christian Children, who have not yet been received in the school, for the sake of the great want the Mission is in at present, we relying upon Divine Providence and the Allmightys paternal Goodness, resolved to receive those children for 2 or 3. Months at least, that they may be further instructed and attain to a better Knowledge. Because we have the best hopes of the Young Minds, as they are more capable of improving themselves, and therefore it is absolute necessary they should be taken care of.
