Soon as he, who goeth to Mollbrandiruppen
returneth home again.

A. Several other things were considered, the resolution of which was deferred till next Conference.

Nov: 12. 1. Considering the increase of our Christians in the Country, and having good hopes of farther Success, we find it absolute necessary to have more Catechists and fellowlabourers of the natives; Because Ambrosius, the only Catechist we have, can now no more take care of both those Christians within the Companys bounds, and those far off in the Country. We therefore resolved to write a Letter to our Brethren in Tranquebar, & desire them to Send us one or two of their clef Schoolboys, who are arrived to a good Knowledge, and as for their behaviour bear a good Character, that we may keep them here at home with us for the Service within the Company's board, that Ambrosius may gain more time to go up in the Country to visit the Christians there and converse with the heathens.

2.) About our present Catechumens.

3.) Considering some circumstances concerning those who are to be prepared for to receive the Lord Supper.

An impediment coming in the way, the Conference was deferred. Nov: 19.

1.) About those who are now daily prepared for to receive the Lord Supper, and that the holy Sacrament is to be administered next Sunday in the Malabarian, and the next following Sunday in the Portuguese Congregation. Nov: 26.

2.) We considered several circumstances relating to our present catechumens.

1.) About some persons, who have offered themselves to turn Christians, and that we will send the Catechist in the Country next Week to visit the Christians, & to call some people now to come here. Dec: 3.
