Company's board, that Ambrosius may gain more time to go up in the Country to visite the Christians there and converse with the heathens.

2.) About our present Catechumens.

3.) Considering some circumstances concerning those who are to be prepared for to receive the Lord Supper.

An impediment coming in the way, the Conference was deferred. Nov: 19.

1.) About those who are now daily prepared for to receive the Lord Supper, and that the holy Sacrament is to be administered next Sunday in the Malabarian, and the next following Sunday in the Portuguese Congregation. Nov: 26.

2.) We considered several circumstances relating to our present catechumens.

1.) About some persons, who have offered themselves to turn Christians, and that we will send the Catechist in the Country next Week to visite the Christians, & to call some people now to come here. Dec: 3.

here for to be prepared for baptism, which they have desired sometime ago.

2.) About those of the Portuguese Congregation who are to be Communicants next Sunday, & that one of them must be put off till next time; because we find reason not to admit him now.

Dec: 10. 1.) We considered some circumstances relating to our present Catechumens, and resolved to baptize them next Sunday, as also to receive those Roman Catholics who have hitherto been instructed, into our Church. But 2 persons amongst the Roman Catholics, and 1 amongst the heathen Catechumens having not yet attained to such a knowledge as is requisite, we find it necessary to keep them longer in the preparation.

2.) As the Catechist could not go into the Country this week according to our resolution in the last Conference, because of the great rain & other impediments; We resolved that
