here for to be prepared for baptism, which they have desired sometime ago.

2.) About those of the Portuguese Congregation who are to be Communicants next Sunday, & that one of them must be put off till next time; because we find reason not to admit him now.

Dec: 10. 1.) We considered some circumstances relating to our present Catechumens, and resolved to baptize them next Sunday, as also to receive those Roman Catholics who have hitherto been instructed, into our Church. But 2 persons amongst the Roman Catholics, and 1 amongst the heathen Catechumens having not yet attained to such a knowledge as is requisite, we find it necessary to keep them longer in the preparation.

2.) As the Catechist could not go into the Country this week according to our resolution in the last Conference, because of the great rain & other impediments; We resolved that that next Monday one of us together with the Catechist shall make a Journey up into the Country for 5 or 6 Days. And we deliberated & resolved upon several circumstances relating to the same.

- 3.) Some other natives from the Country having desired to be instructed for baptism, we resolved to begin a preparation with them, and that we will by this next Journey into the Country, invite those, who sometime ago had promised to come.

One of us being gone upon a Journey Dec: 17. into the Country, no Conference was held.

- 1.) That with the beginning of next Year Kiernander shall deliver the Accounts of Receipts and Disbursements to Breithaupt, to keep the same for the following 6 months. Dec: 24.

- 2.) We conferred upon several other things which were deferred till next Conference.

- 1.) Kiernander delivered to Breithaupt the Dec: 31. Accounts of the Mission, that he be now Treasurer for the ensuing 6 Months.
