find means to put one of those we now have in his Head, without taking in another. We also considered in what manner this old man may now for the future get his lively hood.

2.) About some children in the Malabarian School who are to be dismissed and to work for their lively hood, and how to provide in the best manner for them as they are Orphans?

1.) About some misbehaviour of one of Marthi. 3. our christians, whom we sent for and examined.

2.) As the Grain sells now cheapest we resolved to buy now in Stores what may be wanted for the whole Year, and though we have no money in hand, we resolved to borrow, and will trust to Gods paternal care in providing whatever may be necessary.

March 10.

1.) About celebrating the Lords Supper, and that we will give notice about it next Sunday, and afterwards begin a preparation

tion

tion for the Communicants.

2.) As most all the children in the schools are very scabby, we considered several ways how to remedy this Illness.

March 17. 1.) Resolved to begin the preparation for the Lords Supper next munday, and to take the morning hours daily for that purpose.

2.) We considered and deliberated how to remove some disorders, amongst some of our christians.

March 24. One of us being out of order the Conference was deferred.

March 31. 1.) Resolved to baptize those few catechumens, who have hitherto daily been instructed, next Sunday.

2.) To celebrat the Lords Supper in the Malabarian congregation next Thursday, and the same in the Portuguese Congregation on Easter day.

3.) Having had no supply from Europe for so long a time, neither our salaries nor any other money for the support of the Charity Schools & Servants of the Mission, we
