June, 29.th 1, We conferred concerning the present catechumens, and resolved to baptize some of them next Sunday, and to keep some of them for some time longer in the preparation.

2, The scarcity of all sorts of provision obliges us to raise the wages of the servants of the Mission.

July 6.th 1, We conferred concerning those catechumens, who are still in the preparation and about two more, who are now come to the same purpose.

2, As the ship Admiral Vernon, who brings the several things for the Mission, is now arrived safe here, we resolved to request the landing of such things here, as belong to the Cuddalore and Tranquebar Missions, as it will be difficult to gett it from Madras by this contrary Wind.

3, About Children to be taken into the School.

July, 13.th 1, Concerning our catechumens whom we intend to baptize next Sunday.

2, About some christians from the Country.

3, We conferred again, concerning making a Pulpit in the Church, and some small repairs and alterations, which we have long ago resolved to do, as it is most necessary, but not having been able to gett neither materials nor Workmen hitherto, we will now endeavour and see if we can go through with it.

July 20.

We resolved, before we celebrate the Lords supper, to treat upon that important Subject, in our Sermons for several Sundays together, according to 1. Cor. XI, 23. sequi
