Nov: 20.th 1, We resolved to celebrate the Lords Supper to the Portuguese Congregation on Christmas Day, and in the Tamulian on St Stevens Day.

2, The repetition of the Sundays sermon has hitherto been held in the Church in Cuddalore in the afternoon; but as all the Christians, who live far off cannot come, we will one of us continue the repetition as before in the Church, for the Town people; but resolved that one of the Catechists shall repeat the sermon on Sundays in the afternoon in the Schoolhouse in Wandilpalaiam, and that the Christians from Tripalpore and other Villages shall meet there.

3, Considered how to prevent some disorders by some persons of the Tamulian congregation.

Nov: 27.th 1, The next Sunday, being the 1. Sunday in advent, we resolved to preach the ensuing Year over the Epistolical Texts.

2, We called some natives, come in from the country along with the Assistant Masappan, who desire to be instructed, and having inquired into their circumstances and acquainted them shortly of the true and main End, why they are to turn Christians, we resolved to receive them in the preparation

- 3.) We ordered the schoolmaster, in future every Sunday to write down the names of all those who come to Church, that we may so much the better observe those who come not and inquire into the reason.

- 1.) We conferred upon several particulars relating to a preparative instruction for those who are to be communicants near Christmas.
