endanger his health by coming all of a sudden into the heats of Syria or Egypt. I times you meet here with ships bound for Tripoli di Siria; or Jean Daire, then lands so much the nearer to Jerusalem. Any one that would undertake a voyage the Levant, hath great need of the Italian language.

I have met twice here with some Russian Gentlemen, in one company was Alex Androcz & Xulucoc with whom I fell acquainted at Venice, amongst all Russian acquaintance there is none of so noble a soul.

I shall hardly get from hence before the middle of the next month, ha thoughts to go first to Constantinople, in my next you shall know the c tainty of it. With my services to your Lady and all fellow workmen in t Lords Vineyard I remain, Your true friend and servant. MW L

September the 10th.

What you before I writ about three weekes agoe, but did not send this letter in hopes to give you some certain account of my departure. There is now a Ship from Marseille, called the holy ghost, in which I intend to go to Smirna, if God ple Mr. Turner's father invites me to spend the winter there at their house. I am the less averse to because I have thought of spending the whole summer at Constantinople. Besides the Patriarch of Jerusalem & to whom I have a letter; I find other friends there, God direct our acquaintance and conversation to his which I beseech you to make part of your prayer, when you crave a blessing Christ's universal body

I should be mighty glad to hear once more you go on with the work the Lord at Hall. If you send your letter to Mr. Commer at Venice, and write upon it, recomandee a Mr. Gould, Doctman, et Herringman a Livorno. They will take care to send it after me into Turkey, they are in pany, and Mr. Turners correspondents.

The following extract of a letter from Rome deserves to be taken notice Si fece hieri la solita Congregatione del Santo officio sopra il libro del Arcivescovo di Cambrai, et si hora il Re Christianissimo non solo vuole sia ma di piu, che si qualificano le dette propositioni: I suppose they are to be declar'd heretical if it be non e possibile, et sarebbe avai, che la S^{ta} Sede condescende a tale prohibitione, nel cui caso prevarebbe la politica, ma non gia la giur in quanto concludono le Theologi.
